

INDIAN JOURNALISTS UNION

F-29, Shankar Market, Connaught Circus, New Delhi – 110 001

Dear Ms Costa,

Thanks for your mail regarding the hosting of the World Congress of the IFJ in 2013.

Our union is vitally interested in further strengthening and deepening our relations with the IFJ and could, therefore, consider hosting the Congress in India. We, however, are hesitating to make an offer straightaway because the months of June and July are terribly hot in this country and the delegates to the Congress may not find it convenient to visit India in that part of the year. Before taking up the matter formally with the IJU's National Executive, we would like to confirm whether it would be possible for the IFJ to hold the Congress in, say, February-March or October-November, or whether months of June-July are non-negotiable.

I am also requesting Sabina to discuss the options with you when she visits Buenos Aires to attend the IFJ Executive Committee meeting. We shall also seek the guidelines from Christiane as suggested by you.

Looking forward to warmer relations with the IFJ and hoping to hearing from you soon,

Yours Sincerely,

S. N Sinha,

(President)
